Video 3 - Hopping has a commentary by Nicholas Reeves in which he explains what ARTP hoped could be found.. At least for now, there is no telling whether the University of Arizona archaeologist is right and King Tutankhamun's burial complex.

These doorways are hidden from view by a thick layer of plaster, which explains why archaeologists who explored the tomb in the past did not notice them.. Even so, it looks like these people all failed to notice that there is more to the tomb than meets the eye.. Years later, when Queen Nefertiti passed away as well, she was buried in a tomb built next to King Tutankhamun's burial chamber, Nicholas Reeves proposes in his report.
